NORMAN J. LATKER

Mr. Latker is the Vice President for Legal and Technology Affairs of University Science, Engineering and Technology, Inc. (USET), former Director, Office of Federal Technology Management, of the U.S. Department of Commerce, and former Patent Counsel, U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

MAJOR PROFESSIONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- Managed the DHEW patent portfolio and technology transfer program from 1963 to 1978.
- Developed and implemented the Institutional Patent Agreement Policy for Department of Health, Education and Welfare (DHEW).
- Aided universities and other DHEW contractors in the delivery of over 75 inventions to the marketplace.
- Architect of P.L. 96-517, the University Small Business Patent Act of 1980 and implemented regulations, OMB Circular A-124, which is the first government-wide patent policy.
- Developed the President's Patent Policy Statement of 1983 which extends P.L. 96-517 to remaining government contractors.
- Architect of P.L. 98-620 and implementation regulation 37 C.F.R.401, which extends and improves P.L. 96-517.
- Architect of the technology management provisions of P.L. 99-502, the Federal Laboratory Technology Transfer Act of 1986, which extend the concepts of P.L. 96-517 to inventions made at federally managed laboratories.

EDUCATION:

B.S.C.E., 1953 from University of Illinois
J.D., 1956 from the University of Illinois
Honorary Doctor of Laws, 1985 from University of Illinois for contribution to U.S. patent and technology management laws.

HONORS:

Dean's List; Chi Epsilon; Presidential Citation for Nonnuclear Energy Research and Development Act of 1974; Six outstanding performance citations; Honorary Doctor of Law; Two DOC medals for contributions to technology transfer; recipient of "The Birch Award" from SUPA.

BAR MEMBERSHIP:

Illinois, District of Columbia, U.S. Patent Office and United States Supreme Court.

n1003