ACTION

Daughters of the Confederacy: Senate passed without amendment and sent to the House S. 810, to extend for fourteen years, through 1991, the patent of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. Page S7555

EXTENSION OF PATENT TO THE UNITED DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD. Mr. President, S. 810 was reported earlier today from the Committee on the Judiciary. I ask unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection to the request of the Senator from West Virginia?

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the bill (S. 810) granting an extension of patent to the United Daughters of the Confederacy, which was read the first time by title and the second time at length.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The bill is open to amendment. If there be no amendment to be proposed, the question is on the engrossment and third reading of the bill.

The bill (S. 810) was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, read the third time, and passed, as follows:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That a certain design patent issued by the United States Patent Office of date November 8, 1898, being patent numbered 29,611, which is the insignia of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, which was renewed and extended for a period of fourteen years by Public Law Numbered 213, Eighty-eighth Congress, approved December 18, 1963, is hereby renewed and extended for an additional period of fourteen years from and after the date of enactment of this Act, with all the rights and privileges pertaining to the same, being generally known as the insignia of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill was passed, and I move to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

Mr. THURMOND. Mr. President, I thank the able, distinguished majority leader for such prompt and expeditious action on this measure.

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD. Mr. President, the Senator is entitled to it.
